

TABLE 1

Organization	Amount	Geography	FHLBSF Member Bank	Short Description
CAMEO	$39,000	Central Valley	Charles Schwab	Support home-based women entrepreneurs through the Go-to-Market (food and specialty crop farmers) and Etsy (crafters) training programs.
Centro Community Partners	$45,000	statewide	MUFG Union Bank	Provide app-based technology tools to 15-20 microenterprise development organizations with the goal of training 300 entrepreneurs.
Community for Innovation, Entrepreneurship, Leadership & Opportunities (CIELO)	$50,000	Huntington Beach	Pacific West	Microenterprise and entrepreneurship training for economically disadvantaged, low-income individuals with entrepreneurial ambitions.
El Pajaro Community Development Corporation	$39,000	Santa Cruz, Monterey, and San Benito counties	Santa Cruz Community Credit Union	Bilingual and culturally appropriate small and microbusiness education to support emerging entrepreneurs from these disadvantaged communities.
Jefferson Economic Development Institute	$25,000	Rural Northern California	Redding Bank of Commerce	Rural-specific technical assistance, microenterprise training, and access to credit for women entrepreneurs, with a focus on artisan crafters and makers.
National Asian American Coalition	$20,000	Statewide	Mechanics Bank	Small business education and microlending to low-income and underserved small business owners.
Pacific Community Ventures	$20,000	San Francisco, Alameda, and Contra Costa counties		Matches small loans, from $10,000-$50,000, and a pro-bono business advisor with a prospective small business.
Prospera	$20,000	Oakland	Mechanics Bank	Develop new and existing relationships with organizations that work with Latina entrepreneurs and provide direct technical assistance to cohorts of prospective cooperative businesses.
West Enterprise Center, Inc.	$39,000	Mendocino County	Mendo Lake Credit Union	Business owners receive coaching to identify opportunities for improving financial management, strategic decision-making, etc.
Women's Economic Ventures	$20,000	Santa Barbara and Ventura counties	Bank of the West	Expand the WEV en Español program to include culturally appropriate business consulting for Hispanic entrepreneurs.
Working Solutions	$35,000	San Francisco Bay Area	Bank of San Francisco	Support the integration of the sponsor's financial toolkit into its business consulting program to formalize the assessment of a client's financial acumen and provide tools to help clients attain business success.